Within the reader will find some 260 poetic prayers spread over a two year period that chronicle the author's struggle to live according to God's will. One might find insight into their own attempt to understand the mind of God as well as inspiration to rededicate themselves to or intensify their love for the Creator. All prayers are addressed to "the Lord" thus excluding none of the three monotheistic religions. An innovative writing style is used employing a galaxy of invented words and unique modes of expression.
